Notice of intention to commence proceedings — Schedule 1, Family Law Rules 2021

To Bao Tri Nguyen, 4/91 Sydney Road, Brunswick VIC 3056
Date 24 March 2026

We act for Amara Jane Whitfield of 18 Kelburn Street, Coburg VIC 3058.

Our client instructs that she and you lived together in a de facto relationship from 4 March 2012 and finally separated on 27 November 2025. There are three children of the relationship.

Issues in dispute

1. The living arrangements for Harper, Elliot and Thea, and the time they spend with you.
2. The division of the property of the de facto relationship, including 18 Kelburn Street Coburg, 12/6 Nicholson Street Coburg, Hai Au Kitchen Pty Ltd, motor vehicles and superannuation.

Orders our client will seek

Parenting orders and financial or property orders (including a superannuation splitting order). Our client does not seek spousal maintenance at this time.

Genuine steps

Our client invites you to participate in family dispute resolution and to exchange full and frank financial disclosure within 21 days. If this letter is not answered within 21 days our client will commence proceedings in the Federal Circuit and Family Court of Australia (Division 2) at Melbourne.

You should obtain independent legal advice.
