Advice given at intake

At this appointment I gave the client advice about the family counselling and family dispute resolution services and options available, including alternatives to court action, in circumstances where there are allegations of family violence. The client was given the contact details of Safe Steps, the Orange Door (Merri-bek) and Relationships Australia Victoria's Family Violence Support Service.

The client confirmed she understood that attending family dispute resolution is voluntary and that she may seek an exemption from filing a section 60I certificate where family violence is alleged. The client elected to proceed to a joint session.

This record is provided for the purposes of section 60J of the Family Law Act 1975.
